THE FUTURE OF EUROPE

26 September 2021

Honorable Heads of State and Government,

You have the misfortune of having to govern Europe through the most difficult period in its history, the last stage of the demographic transition and the first stage of the sustainability era. No one envies your position. Everyone hopes for your success.

Your efforts so far, unfortunately, have born only bitter fruit and if you continue in the same fashion Europe will be inevitably plunged into civil war, which will invalidate seventy-five years of sacrifices for the sake of peace preservation and shatter the entire international order. With this letter I hope to prevent this outcome.

Your failure is the result of three wrongs. You are following the wrong guidance, using the wrong approach and operating under the wrong assumptions.

The wrong moral guidance that informs your actions comes from the Church, which has given you permission to euthanize the old and the chronically ill by denying them critical care and by injecting them with deadly Covid vaccines so as to address Europe's inverted population structure by limiting life expectancy to 75 years and by lowering the old-age burden from 30% to below 20%; but also to sterilize the young, by increasing the presence of endocrine disruptors in our food and beverages and by deploying a quasi-mandatory Covid vaccines regime, so Europe's population is reduced by half and therefore to sustainability by 2050. The moral guidance you are following is therefore inherently immoral and implicitly criminal.

The wrong approach comes from the UN and its agencies, especially the WHO and its main sponsors, Bill Gates and Big Pharma, as well as the military-industrial complex of the US, UK, China, Russia and India, to whom you have outsourced the task of terrorizing, poisoning, sterilizing, euthanizing, censoring and constraining your own people so as to reduce consumption and thus lower greenhouse gas emissions by an impossible 20% Europe-wide and by 7% globally every year from 2020 until 2030 and to reach carbon neutrality by 2050, as called for by the UN's Emissions Gap Report and pledged by 196 nations upon signing the Paris Agreement. The approach you are following is therefore UN-sponsored bioterrorism and state-sanctioned genocide and economic sabotage.

The wrong assumptions that underlie your actions come from the misguided and self-serving belief that people are fundamentally bad and therefore incapable of making sacrifices for the common good, but also insufficiently intelligent to understand why such sacrifices are needed at this time in our history and therefore it is better to manipulate, deceive and indoctrinate the masses than to educate and empower every individual. The assumptions you are following are therefore nothing more than confirmation bias that leads to self-fulfilling prophecies; in other words, people are bad because you treat them badly, educate them badly, encourage them to do bad things and leave them no alternative but to behave badly.

Change your guidance, approach and assumptions and stop the depopulation by vaccination and the decarbonization by plandemic programs before it is too late and our civilization collapses into chaos and violence. You are not 'building back better' you are 'destroying everything forever'.

We didn't elect you to be Bill Gates' bitches! Nor did we elect you to be the Church's choir boys, the UN's parrots, the WHO's crooks and Big Pharma's salespeople. Yet that is what you have become, a muzzled lot of puppets. No wonder the continent is in shambles!

Europe is on its knees and it is your doing. You have collapsed its economy. You have bankrupted a quarter of its private enterprises. You have torn its social fabric asunder. You have annihilated the rule of law. You have eviscerated our fundamental rights and liberties. You have assaulted human dignity. You have discredited science. You have falsified news. You have fabricated facts and figures. You have delegitimized government. You have murdered our parents. You have sterilized our young. You have sickened our friends. You have tortured our children. You have betrayed our culture. You have broken our trust. You have plunged the continent in fear and loathing. You have turned Europe into a concentration camp. And, to top it all up, you are even attempting to shatter our free will. Never in modern history has there been more devastation and ruin caused by the political class. And never has the political class been more criminal.

Step back from the brink and shut down the plandemic circus! And under no circumstances should you proceed with steps two and three that have been planned, namely the engineered energy crisis, which has already been started, and the engineered financial crisis that is about to be started.

Europe's demographic and economic ills cannot be solved with vaccines. Just as Europe's environmental and political ills cannot be solved with lockdowns. Governing by engineered crises is a fool's game. Mankind cannot be managed like a herd of cattle. Society cannot be engineered like a slaughterhouse. Human beings cannot be constrained like robots. And civilization cannot be built on a foundation of grotesque lies. Technocracy is a failure every bit as disastrous as feudalism, royalism, communism and capitalism, but in a much shorter time and with far greater consequences.

Neither can Europe's problems be left unresolved, which is why I have provided a workable alternative. The time has come to enact it.

My last word of caution, heaven forbid should you take your cues at the upcoming UN Climate Change Conference (COP 26) in Glasgow from autistic girls and demented scientists pointing at geoengineered events as signs of climate apocalypse! Act resolutely but adopt realistic goals and put people first. The planet is far more resilient than a human life and has infinitely more time to heal.

Sincerely
